SUMMARY:

On July 30, 2007 at 0959 hours the suspect was stopped by Carlsbad officers. The suspect was driving a black and white Ford Crown Victoria, commonly recognized as a police vehicle. The vehicle was equipped with emergency lights. The suspect was also in possession of police equipment, including a gun belt and ballistic vest.

An investigation was conducted and the suspect was arrested for impersonating a police officer. The Carlsbad Police Department recognizes the need to partner with the community to maintain the trust that public safety personnel need to effectively serve the community.

The Carlsbad Police Department is concerned that the suspect may have contacted citizens while impersonating an officer. Anyone who may have been contacted by an individual representing themselves as a 'Fugitive Investigations Agent' should contact the Carlsbad Police Department.
